

An architectural rendering of a proposed housing development. The main building is a large, multi-story structure with a central courtyard area featuring greenery and trees. The surrounding area shows other buildings and streets, including 'Harrow Road' and 'Elmfield Way'. A blue circular callout bubble in the top left corner contains text.

Come and meet the design team and council officers, see
the latest designs,
give your views and
ask questions.

PUBLIC EXHIBITION 20TH-21ST SEPTEMBER 2013

HOUSING PROJECT AT HARROW ROAD/ELMFIELD WAY

Come along and find out about plans to redevelop the site at 291 Harrow Road/Elmfield Way. A mixed development is proposed combining specialist housing for people with learning disabilities and affordable intermediate housing for rent for keyworkers and families. We would like to share the plans with you and hear your views before the planning application is submitted.

EXHIBITION VENUE: Paddington Arts, 32 Woodfield Road, W9 2BE

OPENING TIMES:

Friday 20th September from 4pm to 8.30pm
Saturday 21st September from 11am to 3pm

City of Westminster

THE DEVELOPMENT WILL COMBINE:

- More and improved supported accommodation for people with learning disabilities and people with autism, providing excellent care in brand new, purpose built accommodation.
- About 63 new affordable intermediate homes for rent, including for key workers. These homes will enable local people who are eligible to access affordable housing.

We hope you will be able to visit the exhibition and look forward to hearing your views. If you are unable to attend you can view the designs on our website at westminster.gov.uk/harrowroadproject where you will also find a feedback form to give your views.

